

Sports Medicine and Human Performance Department

Movement Science & AT Majors Student Outcomes

RESPECT OTHERS

All Movement Science Students will be respectful of others.

All Movement Science Students will understand and demonstrate cultural competence; and, have an appreciation for the importance of creating welcoming and inclusive environments respectful of gender, race, ethnicity, socio-economic status, culture, ability, body size and sexual and gender identity.

COMMUNICATE EFFECTIVELY

All Movement Science Students will have effective communication skills.

All Movement Science Students will understand the need for and will demonstrate proficiency in written and oral communications and be able to utilize different forms of current technology.

REFLECT THOUGHTFULLY

All Movement Science Students will be reflective practitioners.

All Movement Science Students will use reflective practices to plan, implement and evaluate program, personal, community and professional goals.

THINK CRITICALLY

All Movement Science Students will engage in Evidence-Based Practices.

All Movement Science Students will demonstrate an ability to explain the relevance of scientific and theoretical knowledge appropriate to his/her chosen field of study to everyday problems.

All Movement Science Students will utilize critical inquiry to advance knowledge and apply that knowledge to practice.

BE PROFESSIONAL

All Movement Science Students will be professional.

All Movement Science Students will understand the importance of and will engage in professional behaviors including pursuit of appropriate credentials.

VALUE PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

All Movement Science Students will value Physical Activity.

All Movement Science Students will understand the role of Physical Activity in the Health and Wellness of individuals across the lifespan.

ENGAGE CIVICALLY

All Movement Science Students will be engaged citizens.

All Movement Science Students will value and participate in Civic Engagement.